Using a single vertical auger mounted behind the planter, Kasco’s Seed Fill Augers offer a simple yet rugged design. The brackets do not interfere with the railing; no modification to the planter is needed.

A flexible discharge hose at the top of the augers allows quick fill of the seed hoppers.

For transport, the Kasco Auger swings around parallel to the planter.